CHARITABLE GIFT ANNUITY APPLICATION

I have received a disclosure statement (attached) from ChildFund International regarding its gift annuity reserves and investments, as required under the Philanthropy Protection Act. I understand that a charitable gift annuity is irrevocable and that, at the death of the last payment recipient, the portion of my contribution remaining after satisfying the annuity payment obligation will be used by ChildFund International for its general fund.

An Annuity Contract is final once it has been signed by both the applicant(s) and an officer of ChildFund International.

Gift Annuity Disclosure Statement

Description of a Gift Annuity

A gift annuity is a simple contract between the donor(s) and ChildFund International USA (hereinafter "ChildFund"). In exchange for the donor's(s') contribution, ChildFund promises to make fixed, guaranteed payments for life to one or two annuitants (usually, but not necessarily, the donor(s)). The amount paid is based on the age of the annuitant(s), in accordance with ChildFund's rate schedule.

Not a Commercial Investment

The act of establishing a gift annuity with ChildFund is not, and should not be viewed as, an investment. Rather, it is a way to receive annuity payments while making a charitable donation. In this respect, a gift annuity issued by ChildFund is different from a commercial annuity. However, your charitable gift may provide you with tax benefits, including a current federal income tax charitable deduction (if you itemize your deductions), annuity payments which are partially tax-free, and future estate tax savings.

Gift Annuity Rates

Generally, the gift annuity rates paid by ChildFund are those suggested by the American Council on Gift Annuities, which is a national organization of charities that has been in existence since 1927. These rates have been calculated so as to provide attractive payments to the donor and/or other annuitant(s) and also to result in a significant portion of the contribution remaining for the charity. Because a charitable gift is involved, the rates are lower than those available through commercial annuities offered by insurance companies and other financial institutions.

Assets Backing Annuity

The annuity payments are a general obligation of ChildFund, and they are backed by unencumbered assets. On June 30, 2010 our total invested funds exceeded $30,433,240, and they are invested in mutual funds, federal obligations and other investment vehicles. We also maintain three segregated gift annuity reserve funds valued at more than $2,611,400 that are invested in accordance with the laws of the states in which we offer gift annuities. Assets received by ChildFund for gift annuities are managed by SunTrust Bank in a prudent manner. If ChildFund should ever fail financially, individuals entitled to receive annuities will qualify as general creditors of ChildFund.

Responsibility for governing ChildFund, which was established in 1938, is vested in a Board of Directors comprised of 16 - 30 persons, who are elected by membership. Common investment funds managed by our organization are exempt from registration requirements of the federal securities laws, pursuant to the exemption for collective investment funds and similar funds maintained by charitable organizations under the Philanthropy Protection Act of 1995 (P.L. 104-62). Information in this letter is provided to you in accordance with the requirements of that Act.

Points to Remember

- A contribution for a gift annuity is irrevocable. The principal you contribute cannot be returned to you.
- The right to annuity payments may not be assigned to any person or organization, other than ChildFund.
- The gift date is the date when you actually transfer assets. In the case of cash, it is the date you mail or deliver a check. In the case of an electronic transfer of securities, it is the date they are received into the account of ChildFund. If you have certificates, it is the date they are properly endorsed and mailed or delivered.
- The gift annuity is governed by applicable state laws.
