ChildFund Partners With Platinum-Selling Recording Artist Carman to Promote Child Sponsorship

Richmond, Va. – May 29, 2014 – Platinum-selling recording artist Carman is partnering with ChildFund International to raise awareness about child sponsorship on his "No Plan B Tour," launching today in Tallahassee, Florida.

The popular Christian singer, responsible for selling more than 10 million records worldwide since 1980, will educate attendees about ChildFund's work in 30 countries.

"I am excited to be partnering with ChildFund International on this tour as they work to help children around the world," said Carman.

The 70-plus-date tour runs from May to November. Concertgoers will be able to enjoy music from Carman's latest studio album while also learning about how they can help children and families living in poverty by sponsoring through ChildFund.

This is Carman's first tour in 14 years. His previous concerts have been attended by approximately 4.5 million fans.

"Carman is a legend in the Christian music industry," says Jeffrey Miller, ChildFund's senior LIVE! manager. "It's exciting to have him back on the road touring, and a tremendous honor that he has chosen to be an advocate for the vulnerable children and families ChildFund serves across the globe."

ChildFund is also looking for volunteers to help at events. For more information, please visit <https://www.childfund.org/artist-live/>.
