ChildFund Selects Panos as VP of Global Fundraising & Communications

Richmond, Va. – Jan. 13, 2012 – ChildFund International announces the appointment of Matthew Panos to the position of vice president of Global Fundraising and Communications. He will manage the fundraising, marketing and communications teams.

Panos brings more than 30 years of nonprofit experience to ChildFund International. Most recently, he was the vice president of global marketing, development and communications at Food for the Hungry where he implemented its first mobile marketing campaign.

Prior to Food for the Hungry, Panos served as vice president of development and foundation executive director for Baptist Hospital and Health Systems and senior regional director for the American Lebanese Syrian Associated Charities (ALSAC)/St. Jude Children's Research Hospital.
